1. Please see the submittal calendar deadlines. Since rezonings require public hearings, the submittal dates are rigid.
2. Applicant submits application with the following information:
  - a. Conceptual Site Plans to scale (see checklist for requirements)
  - b. Written legal description of property
  - c. Property deed
  - d. Recorded plat of property (seven (7) copies)
  - e. Campaign Contribution Disclosure Form
  - f. Disclosure of Financial Interest Form
  - g. Filing fee (payable to the City of Clarkston)
  - h. Written analysis of the impact of the proposed amendment with respect to:
    - i. Whether the amendment proposal is compatible with the surrounding future land uses as identified in the future development map
    - ii. Whether the amendment proposal can be adequately served by existing transportation facilities and other infrastructure, such as schools, water, and sewer
    - iii. Whether the amendment proposal negatively impacts natural and historic resources identified by the city
    - iv. Whether the amendment proposal is in the best interest of the city and the public good and whether the proposal protects the health and welfare of its citizens
    - v. Whether the property to be affected by the amendment proposal has a reasonable economic use as currently designated on the future development map
    - vi. Whether the amendment proposal meets the policies and intent established in the comprehensive plan (Section 321(b), 321(d)).
3. At the time of the official submittal, applicant receives notices of public hearing date and information regarding the posting of a sign on the property. All properties subject for rezoning require a sign posted on the property fifteen (15) days prior to the public hearing. (Sec. 304-c (1)(c))
4. Public Hearing – council approves, approves with conditions, or denies the request.
5. Zoning proposal review standards: Planning & Zoning board and city council consider the following in making their decision:
  - a. The effect upon the health, safety, morals or general welfare of the public compared to any hardship imposed upon the individual property owner seeking rezoning should rezoning be denied;
  - b. Whether the zoning proposal will permit a use that is suitable in view of the use and development of adjacent and nearby property;
  - c. Whether the zoning proposal will adversely affect the existing use or usability of adjacent or nearby property;
  - d. Whether the property to be affected by the zoning proposal has a reasonable economic use as currently zoned;
  - e. Whether the zoning proposal will result in a use that may cause an excessive or burdensome use of existing streets, transportation facilities, utilities, or schools;
  - f. Whether there are other existing or changing conditions affecting the use and development of the property which give supporting grounds for either approval or disapproval of the zoning proposal;
  - g. Whether the zoning proposal is compatible with the principals of the city's long range plan as set forth in the Conceptual Master Land Use and Connectivity Plan for the City of Clarkston, a part of the Clarkston Livable Centers Initiative Study as adopted in March 2005, adopted as the city's Comprehensive Plan;
  - h. Whether the zoning proposal is compatible with the most current adopted version of the Future Development Map of the Clarkston Comprehensive Plan.
6. Applicant must initiate and make substantial progress toward the development of the property within twelve (12) months of the approval of the rezoning, or seek an extension. (Sec 306)
7. If application for rezoning is denied, applicant must wait twelve (12) months before re-applying.
